I know that a new day is coming soon
But alone I am not prepared
You are the one who brought my dust to life like a rose in the desert

I know that I've held on too long
To everything keeping me from
Learning to let go
I'm learning to let
You move me closer
To a heart that's open
I'm learning to let go
I'm learning to let go

(Learning to let go) [x2]

Lord I know that You've called me to this place
Where Your eyes are teaching me grace
I can't see where I'm going but I will believe
That You're never gonna leave
You're always holding me

I know that I've held on too long
To everything keeping me from
Learning to let go
I'm learning to let
You move me closer
To a heart that's open
I'm learning to let go
I'm learning to let go

No, there's nothing I own
All You've designed
So beautifully sewn
Oh please, help me let go
Cause You're in control

(Learning to let go) [x2]

I know that I've held on too long
To everything keeping me from

Learning to let go
I'm learning to let
You move me closer
To a heart that's open
I'm learning to let go
I'm learning to let go

Learning to let go
Learning to let go
I'm learning to let go
Learning to let go
Learning to let go
I'm learning to let go
I'm learning to let go
