Anyone can see dawn is breaking
Now I'm getting ready to hit the open road
Think of all the dreams we've been chasing
Driving through the sunshine
Driving through the rain (Driving through the rain)
Back out on the road again (Back out on the road again)

Both voices

Drive away, drive away
Can't you hear it calling
Roll away, roll away
It's a brand new morning
Drive away, drive away
Can't you hear it calling
Roll away, roll away
It's a brand new day

Anyone can see my heart's racing (Ah, Anyone can see my heart's racing)
Now the wait is over (Ooh)
And its us against the world (Ah)
When I think about all the time I've been wasting (Ah)
I never would have made it on my own (Ooh, on my own)
I never would have made it alone (I never would have made it alone)

Both voices

Drive away, drive away
Can't you hear it calling
Roll away, roll away
It's a brand new morning
Drive away, drive away
Can't you hear it calling
Roll away, roll away
It's a brand new day

Anyone can see we've been waiting (Anyone can see we've been waiting)
Waiting for the moment to bring it on home (Waiting for the moment to bring it on home)

Think of all the dreams we've been chasing (That we've been chasing)
I never would have made it on my own (On my own) I'd never would have made it home (I'd never would have made it home)
Home, home, home

Anyone can see we've been waiting (Ah, That we've been waiting)
And now we're getting ready to hit the open road (Ooh,
Now we're getting ready, Ah, to hit the open road) Anyone can see my heart's racing (Ah, That my heart's racing)
And now the wait is over (Ooh, Now the wait is over)
And its us against the world (Ah, Its us against the world)

Anyone can see we've been waiting (Ah, ooh)
Waiting for the moment to bring it on home (Ooh,
Waiting for the moment (Ah, to bring it on home)
Anyone can see dawn is breaking (Ah, That dawn is breaking yeah)
Now we're getting ready to hit the open road (Ooh, Now we're getting ready, Ah, to hit the open road)

Anyone can see my heart's racing (Ah, That my heart's racing baby)
And now the wait is over (Ooh, Now the wait is over)
And its us against the world (Ah, Its us against the world)

Anyone can see we've been waiting (Ah, That we've been waiting)
Waiting for the moment to bring it on home (Ooh, Waiting for the moment, Ah, to bring it on home)

Anyone can see dawn is breaking (Ah, Na-ah)
Now I'm getting ready to hit the open road (Ooh, Ah, To hit the open road)
Anyone can see my heart's racing (Ah, That my heart's racing)
And now the wait is over
