Take a trip with the narcoleptic
Suffered insomnia but this time it was only seconds
I see thermometers, boy, that has you lying in the desert
Of eternal fire, hatred and not yourself for a blessing
Meanwhile Iâ'm on the new cloud chunking the deuce
New vows for sinners, homies, enemies, too
Gold town under my feet, clicking the fluke with a thousand troops
Clip your pot root, nigga, whoop whoop
Love I depend on, white doves I depend on They flying through the end zone, that mint loan to Â...
So listen homie, you missed me with that bullshit
I keep my distance homie, Iâ'm on a higher portrait
You cannot fix it, homie
I mean the beauty of heaven is far from me not to exit
Itâ's like an antidepressant
You see the fisher, homie? I mean this godly advice Fuck it right even if you pinch me twice yes I keep dreaming

Lovely lullabies
I donâ't see another thing but starry skies
Pillows of clouds beneath my wings
And endless skies
As far our hazy eyes can see, the sun will rise
And illuminate this life

Oh why do I have to return to reality?
Oh I this time Iâ'll try, Iâ'll try
Not to wake up from this dream

Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I wonâ't wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I canâ't wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I wonâ't wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming

I will not forget fixating upon a fate Iâ've never met

Explaining away all the reasons as I slept
So beautiful in here, I wish I never left
Iâ€™ve never known it was a lie, this life

Oh why do I have to return to reality?
Oh I this time Iâ€™ll try, Iâ€™ll try
Not to wake up from this dream

Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I wonâ€™t wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I canâ€™t wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I wonâ€™t wake up from this dream
Quit dreaming

I wonâ€™t open my eyes again
Iâ€™ll keep them shot
I wonâ€™t open my eyes again
Iâ€™ll keep them shot
I wonâ€™t open my eyes again
Iâ€™ll keep them shot
I wonâ€™t open my eyes again
Iâ€™ll keep them shot

Quit dreaming and the fact you gonna believe in
I wonâ€™t wake up from this dream
