I know I could be the one you want
Its just that you don't know it yet
But soon your gonna see, woah woah
I would wait a million years for you
Walk around the world, where you
Are is where I'll be

Until the end, until the end

I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and every day
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok x2

Let's go!

So when your telling me that we're just friends
Sure why not, I can pretend
But don't you know that I woah
I will wait until the time is right
Maybe it will be tonight
Tomorrow I might die

Until the end, until the end

I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and everyday
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok x2

And when your world turns dark
And all the roads are blocked
And everything's gone wrong
I'll help you to be strong
I'm right here next to you

In everything you do
And one day hopefully
You want me

Until the end
I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and everyday
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok x2
