Oh, boy you're doing fine now
Oh, boy you're making time now
You were the schoolboy, nobody used to know
I was the one who made you cry all the time
I was the cool boy, everyone used to know
You were the sad boy, but now you're doing fine
Oh, boy you're doing fine now
Oh, boy you got a girlfriend
Oh, boy you're doing fine now
Oh, boy you're making time now
You walked a fine line, nobody knew your name
I made the headline, the type that was set for fame
Great expectations, we know you're gonna go far
Lame explanations, they put me in the jar
Oh boy, my mind's ajar, oh boy, oh boy
You were the loner, you got in everyone's way
Nobody got to know you until the other day
You caught me crying and introduced your eyes
I said "so good to meet you, it's nice to be alive"
(guitar solo)
You were the loner, you got in everyone's way
Nobody got to know you until the other day
You caught me crying and introduced your eyes
I said "so good to meet you, it's nice to be alive"
Oh, boy you're doing fine now
Oh, boy you're making time now
Oh, oh boy, oh, oh boy, oh, oh boy
Woe woe woe woe wah uh uhhhhhhhh wooooooo
