I'm torn by the way
That you play
These all-consuming mind games
Don't you know
That you had me
From the moment you said hello

Oh feels like it's over
We only just begun
Was there a flame right from the start

I can tell that you want me
I can tell that you need me
Please be fair
Please be fair
I can tell that you want me
I can tell that you need me
If I'm no longer there
Would you care

I can never lie
To justify
The way that I am feeling
Honesty
Is a pain that you
Might have to inflict on me, yeah

Oh feels like it's over
We only just begun
I just got a little colder
And now I feel completely numb

(CHORUS)

Can't you feel what's going down
The chemistry that we have found
Or are you gonna let it slip away
You pushed me to the limit now
The silence is the loudest sound

I can tell that you want me

I can tell that you need me
Please be fair
Please be fair

And now I feel completely numb, yeah yeah
So please be fair
Please be fair

What is it you, what is it you...
What is it you love?

Oh feels like it's over
We only just begun
I just got a little colder
Now I feel completely numb
