Leave it to me to fix
This horrible disaster
That tore the world apart
And I'll depend on you
To leave me here forever
So I can change my life
So I can Change my life

Say goodbye
Cause everything you told me was a lie
I really wish I could believe it
Take your time
And I'll get back to the things I need to do
I'll get back to the things I needed

You and me
We were singing songs about
People we had left behind
Sing until our voices died
About the misuse and hard hard abuse
Of a vision caused by stress
Untouched and maybe the best
Is a memory of you

Say goodbye
Cause everything you told me was a lie
I really wish I could believe it
Take your time
And I'll get back to the things I need to do
I'll get back to the things I needed

And I know that you know
That we'll go further than you wanted
Forever telling tales
Of the good times past
When we could sit and laugh
Enjoying company of the one true friend
That you could still keep happy
Blinded by the sight
Of the arrogance
And the ignorance of life

Say goodbye
Cause everything you told me was a lie
I really wish I could believe it
Take your time
And I'll get back to the things I need to do
I'll get back to the things I needed
