Don't think you're all alone
Don't ever feel outgrown
So tell me what you need
Just promise me
You won't deceive the memories of me

Whoa oh oh

Cause you and I
Need to get on with our lives
Tonight

We counted every floorboard
We'd reminisce on the times we missed
When we weren't with one another
Ignoring every warning
We'd cross the skies with united eyes
As your fingertips brushed mine

How could we be so naive?
When you get back
I will have that thing we need
Venture south just one more time
(One more time)
We'll get lost
Within the boundaries of life

I'm not the one you want
And I'm not the one you need
Your life's a living dream
No consequence of me

Whoa oh oh

Cause you and I
Need to get on with our lives
Tonight

We counted every floorboard
We'd reminisce on the times we missed
When we weren't with one another
Ignoring every warning

Weâ€™d cross the skies with united eyes
As your fingertips brushed mine

How could we be so naive?
When you get back
I will have that thing we need
Venture south just one more time
(One more time)
Weâ€™ll get lost
Within the boundaries of life

We counted every floorboard
Weâ€™d reminisce on the times we missed
When we werenâ€™t with one another

We counted every floorboard
Weâ€™d reminisce on the times we missed
When we werenâ€™t with one another
Ignoring every warning
Weâ€™d cross the skies with united eyes
As your fingertips brushed mine

Venture south just one more time
We'll get lost within the boundaries of life
