Jonny likes this girl and he doesn't even know why oh no
Cause she's not like him she's a punk rock girl

Friday night last week he saw this Girl that he thought was the coolest
Black hair spiked belt she was a punk chick
All he wanted was her

[Chorus:]

Well she's a punk rock girl all alone in this little world
She's looking for someone to blame
The stories that her daddy told weren't all true and got real old
And now she's running away

He wonders aimlessly and he doesn't know where she could be Cause all he wants is just one night alone
The next time he saw her was back at school at lunch time smoking
She was to cool he walked up to her to ask her out and she said no way in Hell

[Chorus:]

Well she is not like him he's to into school
She always goes to shows on Friday night alone
She's looking for a guy to go to shows with her Could it be Jonny

A week past and Jonny finally got courage
He walked up to her and then said lets go
She said ok are you the same guy
He said baby I'm yours
