Innocence is lost, desperation takes over me
And I don't know what to do
My word is all but none and there's no place for me drifting
And I have done it again

But you were the one who stole my heart
Sorry, I can't tell you what you need to hear
And you know, I would do it again
If you want just ask that night was mine

All the words you spoke that just pass right through me
I can't breathe and I don't know what to do
This was a mistake, the tears are staining your face
The weekend started but we are over now

But you were the one who stole my heart
Sorry, I can't tell you what you need to hear
And you know, I would do it again
If you want just ask that night was mine

Fighting, yelling, wanting, getting
Talking, lying, living and dying
Fighting, yelling, wanting, getting
