A thousand voices sing our song
The words to a long lost generation
We wander through the night
Just to find our place in life

I'll be sure to find my way

We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass
Hoping that it won't crack
We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass
Hoping that it won't crack

So leave me in my beautiful bliss
Where endless hope and love exists
While the rest of the world sleeps
We turn nightmares into dreams

I'll be sure to find my way
I'll be stronger some day

We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass
Hoping that it won't crack
We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass
Hoping that it won't crack

This is the time; this is the time to change
This is the time; this is the time to change the world
This is the time; this is the time to change
This is the time; this is the time to change the world X2

We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass

Hoping that it won't crack
We stand on glass
With the weight of our past
We stand on glass
Hoping that it won't crack
