From bright Tokyo lights
Into Rome's underground
From Paris at night
To the sound of London's bells

Take me away tonight
Let your dreams come to life

I hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here united

From Venice canals
To the open ocean
From the tombs in Egypt's sand
To the walls of the Vatican

Take me away tonight
Let your dreams come to life

I hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here united

I hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here united
