La-La-Last time

Hey hey I'm sober I swear just got home baby doll you should come on over here we could be a good thing even if its for the night sweet talk tell you everything that you might like I'm alone everybody passed out if I don't remember I'm sorry I blacked out (blacked out) I like you but never had the heart to say it you the only one I called the one that I want to lay with I ain't trying to get you naked even though I really am if we never speak again I probably won't give a damn but I'm drunk so I tell you that I will this courage got me saying things that I don't really feel she said that she with her man she tell me I'm too drunk she said that she can't come its her time of the month she'll come around I know why she acting weird cause by the end of the night she'll end up right here

And we know we should stop we tell ourselves its done the cycle just restarts and now its back to square one you said this was the last time I don't know you said that shit the last time last time

I don't really think its love girl don't get the wrong impression I'm just telling everything you want to gain your reflection like I want you to come over like I want to treat you right like I just don't want to fuck I don't want to lay the pipe despite the fact that she knows shes sayin that she might I beat it up right like we got in a fight she said her friend about to drop her off and its already 2 O'Clock and shes getting dressed up just to take it all off baby lets go nuts bed rock closed thoughts hey we don't got to care about a thing except the notes you hitting when I'm making her body scream she said that she with her man I better not be drunk she'll leave as soon as she can we can do whatever I want she came around I knew she was being weird by the end of the night she ended up right here

(Kyle Lucas) Blame it on the A-A-Alcohol she been thinking about me like round the clock 3 Am and you know that she bound to call bring a friend lets get this ounce involved we can light it up take a puff and just pass it off then you can discuss how your dudes an ass and all we'll its cool I ain't judging the trash you talk I'm just trying to make you scream til you can't no more when you sick of the bullshit and you need a break feeling trapped like you need to escape friends don't approve let your roommates hate got you sneaking back to your room all late for the best what he don't know won't hurt him sensing the guilt see I know you feel the burden and you know its not right when you look in the mirror but by the end of the night she ended up right here
And we know we should stop we tell ourselves its done the cycle just restarts and now its back to square one you said this was the last time I don't know you said that shit the last time last time
