Hold on, kiss me

Don't you miss me

We were friends not too long ago

Don't you wish that

We could get back

To the way things use to go

No. All I said was no.

When you asked

If we were finally done

Yes. You said more than yes

When I asked if you were ready to go

Hold on, kiss me

Don't you miss me

We were friends not too long ago

Don't you wish that

We could get back

To the way things use to go

Don't leave me hanging

Onto this rope you tied

The knot is too strong for just one

Don't go leaving me behind

Don't just break my heart and run

And we had just begun

Looking back I see that you and me

Were never meant to be

I can tell that there were things

You could've done, should've done

But still part of me isn't ready to let go

Hold on, kiss me

Don't you miss me

We were friends not too long ago

Don't you wish that

We could get back

To the way things use to go

Don't leave me hanging

Onto this rope you tied

The knot is too strong for just one

Don't go leaving me behind

Don't just break my heart and run

And we had just begun

And we had just begun

Hold on, kiss me

Don't you miss me

We were friends not too long ago

Don't you wish that

We could get back
