The first day back

It's like a memory

We talk and laugh and walk and talk

Almost like a dream

We had it all

The words the minds the hearts

We made sense

We were right

And then I turn around and see

You're walking away from me

I don't want to let this go...

Could I be losing you?

I never thought I could

Could I be losing you?

We had something strong

What could go wrong

Could I be losing you?

The third day after

The best day of my life

You call me and we talk all night

The fourth day after

You won't pick up the phone

Why are we no longer all right?

Cuz then I turn around and see

You're walking away from me

I don't want to let this go...

Could I be losing you?

I never thought I could

Could I be losing you?

We had something strong

What could go wrong

Could I be losing you?

I remember what you said

Those days a record in my head

I remember what you promised

Now you're breaking it

And you're breaking my heart too

Could I be losing you?

I never thought I could

Could I be losing you?

We had something strong

What could go wrong

Could I be losing you?

L-O-S-I-N-G you

L-O-S-I-N-G you

L-O-S-I-N-G you

Could I be losing you?

Could I be losing you?

Could I be losing you?
