You let me down
I depended on you
I know by now
What to say, what to think, what to do

I've always trusted you
In everything you do
I told the world you'd follow through

You disappointed me
Look back and you will see
All the times I've passed your door
It was all that I asked for

(chorus)
You've let me down
I always depended on you
I should know by now
What to say, what to expect, what to do
To do with you

You'd think I'd figure it out
Always expect the worst
But each time you come around
The stakes are higher,
My head is lighter,
I have further to fall

(chorus)
You've let me down
I always depended on you
I should know by now
What to say, what to expect, what to do
To do with you

I've given you
Too many chances to count
I shouldn't expect you to Change your ways this time through
And yet I do

(chorus x2)

You've let me down
I always depended on you
I should know by now
What to say, what to expect, what to do
To do with you

You let me down
I depended on you
I know by now
What to say, what to think, what to do

To do with you
