So many things I never said
So many things I shoulda said
About this thing, this thing we have
If you can really call it that

So many words still in my head
So many responses never said
How can I tell if we can't say
How we really feel

(chorus)
Will I ever know?
Will I just have to guess and hope
Will you ever admit it to me
Should I just wait and see
Will I ever know?

So great you know, everybody knows too
We have so much, I don't want it to be through
But we can't move on until I know more
Break down those walls so we can soar

(chorus)
Will I ever know?
Will I just have to guess and hope
Will you ever admit it to me
Should I just wait and see
Will I ever know?

(instrumental break)
So now you know
Let's take it slow
Let's take it anywhere but here
I'll be who you wanna be
Say what you wanna say
You just have to let me know

(chorus)
Will I ever know?
Will I just have to guess and hope
Will you ever admit it to me
Should I just wait and see

Will I ever know?
Will I just have to guess and hope
Will you ever admit it to me
Should I just wait and see
Will I ever know?

So many things I never said...
About this thing, this thing we have...
I guess now, I know
