Trapped with nowhere to go
Though the keys are in sight
Clearly in the ignition
Awaiting flight

After traveling thousands of miles
He realized he wouldn't get far
Unless he taught his mind not to fear a change

CHORUS

Blinded by the blazing sun towards one can only run
In hope that their past won't follow behind them
But I can't help you
No I can't help you

Trapped with nowhere to go
Thought the shoes are neatly tied
Prepared for any race:
Win, lose, or die.

After traveling thousands of miles
He realized he wouldn't get far
Unless he taught his mind not to fear a change

CHORUS

(I say da da da you say da da da...)

Please say, say you were wrong

Say that you will not run
Say that you are not done
Not until the day you've won
