Verse one

first off my heart is beatin slowly i come around and you act like you dont know me talking about you me but you never showed i thought you love me tight but you hold me dame like a real girl should i said i needed love but you never understood you messin with my heart , playin games with my mind blood flowing thru my soul tellin me lies, like we're never gon be apart haha damn im feelin so confuse the one love some much i never wanna lose she ith another dude its kills me so much he don't teat you like i do i treat you like a queen my heart is so crushed i need to find a other how can i ?
when all i do is think about the other me and her was prefect for each other together, husband and wife, forever

i got a lot of lookin like lookin for no lady
and this street got me feelin like you can be my lady ima take you to the crib girl you can bring your friend its a monday, but we'gon party like the weekend 4x
like the weekend
party like the weekend

verse two back again as this still feelin so confuse sitting here all alone, texti with my phone feelin so lonely when i made a mistake

thought you were my dream girl, but you only playin game, playin games i which you never leaved with my heart break now my heart is broken, pain in my heart so i ask why i made a little pray for you to come back so i'll make it all right the TV said its sunny, but it still gonna rain the plane wanna move, but the rain won't let us now you gone they say you don;t know what you have untill you lose it its takes time, before i realized watchu meant to me i know my fault i should've gave more but now life's changing everyday like the weather now life's changing everyday like the weather

verse three girl i know you wanna dance with me so common lets go take to my world ice kid world everythin is cold

but everythin is free
