the sound of fear and destruction has now surrounded our family they came to take us all and they will take no prisoners a blinding blaze erupts across the horizon and flares in the night pupils are too wide to save the eyes our hands are covered with the blood of brothers but still we are walking on our knees

this is a call to arms
the morning rain will wash away the blood and everyone will forget our names we pray for our last chance to overcome the error in judgment again we've dropped the ball and no one is getting out of here alive flying death breaks the silence as we walk the desert streets one by one we are all taken down to kiss the ground as we are falling we forget the purpose of this once more the devil has risen it's over we're hopeless

where is your god?
where is your god now?

the sound of fear destruction in my eyes destruction

a blinding blaze erupts across the horizon and flares in front of our eyes we pray for our last chance to overcome

they will take no prisoners
and i'm alive

our last chance they will forget everyone will forget
