(x2)

I am a Rose

A lily among thorns

You have taken me

I am faint with love

Strengthen me, refresh me

I am faint with love

Your left arm is under my head

Your right arm embraces me

Aroused and awakened with love

I so desire, my lover

(x2) The winter has past Flowers appearing The season of singing

Blossoming vines spread your fragrance Arise My darling

(x2) Until the day breaks and the shadows flee Turn my lover

There is no flaw in you, Oh, well of flowing water Turn my lover

You are a seal Over my heart
