Eternal life Rayden Eternal life Rayden Eternal life

The kombat king, the best of the best Just look at Rayden, he cannot rest Our champ, solid as a rock He gives his opponent a state of shock with power, electricity, He dissappears, no you cannot see him move, 'cause Rayden flies, The Superman with eternal life

Plug in, and power up Plug in, and power up

Forces of lightning, power in the sky
The thunder warrior, He's got no eyes
He fights with intensive lust
He turns his foe into a pile of dust

Eternal life, We all know he's not afraid 'cause Rayden can't die
Eternal life, He lives in thunderclouds and comes down from the sky
We all know he's not afraid 'cause Rayden cannot die He lives up in the thunderclouds, He comes down from the sky
He's the thunder warrior with eternal life
He's the electric fighter, stranger in disguise
