Dirty sunshine
you are my savior
looking so fine
what a behavior
its just today
dont feel free to stay
i'm just trying i'll be denying the next day

Oh tomorrow it may come all the lights will shine and give you a sight of who you are or where you should be come here baby
I want you crazy
how about we make it through the fall

This is clear
dont make an appearance
I can be the meanest
I got two pieces
killing the floor if youre there you dont love me no more you're a liar

Oh tomorrow
