Tempt me and my world comes crashing down
Save me, from that wicked sound
Bind me, in your scented sweat
Hold me, in this wet regret

Chorus:

I can see your body moving...yeah
by the colour of your skin
I can see you swimming through me...yeah
When you go right deep within

Verse 2:

Too late, to ignore all those signs
Slowly, the passion will surely die
Teach me, all your wicked ways
Safely and I will push you there

Chorus:

I can see your body moving...yeah
by the colour of your skin
I can see you swimming through me...yeah
When you go right deep within
