Verse 1:

I hope you understand, I could never be your man
Gave you all it takes, but in the end it's my mistake
You took away my pride and left me there to die
There's emptiness inside, every time not by your side

You know I am insane (2)

Verse 2:

I knew you'd understand, it's easy to leave your man
You preached and then you taught, it's always been my fault
And took up all my time and left the world behind
It got tougher everyday, so I travelled another way

You know I am insane (2)

Verse 3:

There's no time to understand, you've already lost your man
You gave me all it takes, In the end it's our mistake
We couldn't get that far, guess it was written in the stars
We left it incomplete, our journey was bittersweet

You know I am insane (2)
