Verse 1:

The taste of your tears keeps me up all night
Your breath on my skin feels like a lullaby
The comets they play right up in the sky
Where deserts grow roses at sunrise

Verse 2:

The forest it echoes throughout the night
Like the noises you make when you moan and cry
The angels above when they hear you scream
Like moments of memories that never been

Chorus:

Hey.... walk away

Verse 3:

The sight of your smile keeps me satisfied
Like the sorrow of oceans without a tide
Dreamt that we held out for one more night
The future"s uncertain in your eyes

Chorus:

Hey... walk away
