"Looking Into The City"

Walking slowly and showing discretion,
I get out of her land,
if I've learned how,
I think that I will break,
This prison inside.

In this city the stories are many,
I'm not the only one,
People passing by,
Ignoring this soul,
This prison inside.

Dropping the promise of love,
Can we just kill it for good?
Against this misery.

Lacking the strength to forget,
Screaming the choices to take,
Against this misery.

Lucky for me she is calming my anger,
breaking my system inside,
with my open arms,
I surrender to you,
directing my life.

Calling echoes leading me,
Step on on the light,
walking by my side,
you showed me,
the path to the sacrifice.

Cracking the fortress of love,
Holding my head to the ground,
Against this sympathy.

The city is holding my mind,
I'm fighting against the air,
that I breath.

Dropping the promise of love,

Cracking the echoes of her,
For this sympathy.

Setting my foot on the light,
Acceptance will be the end,
Of this misery.
