"The Comeback"

I run into the end,
Cleaning my body,
Finally to a rest,
of the choices.

No regret (the comeback)
My own dreams (the comeback)
In my hands (the comeback)
I will build (the comeback)

Standing to do my best,
I grab the power,
No more to feel alone,
My mind is open.

The pain has made me strong,
And raise again,
I've learn so much of this,
And fear no more.

I will walk (the comeback)
to my roots, (the comeback)
I will fly, (the comeback)
I'll be new (the comeback)
