Now all that's left is my identity,
All the lies I spread now start to grow.
And I know that I have sinned many times before,
But I do what is best for me.
I don't want to do this but I still do the same(the same)
I am guilty for what I've done I know,
There is a special place for me in hell.

I'm the best at what I do but it's not right,
So tell me now motherfucker x2

Take me down.

I see the light in the dark,
But I just don't give a fuck.
You see me with other eyes and I see myself as another guy.
Don't try to convince me cause.
I'm not into you,
I'm not into you.

And it's too late.

I lied about everything,
I'd lie about anything.
They trusted me,
I am guilty.

Take me down

So as you said before,
I am drowning now x5
Drowning now.

I lied about everything,
I'd lie about anything.
They trusted me,
I am guilty.

Take me down x2
