Everything used to be so great, until that dreaded day, Forced me the ring and shown me, assured me we'd be ok.

Then you're true colors began to show, i wanted less you wanted more, Complications rose, not compatible.
Escape, Get Out, show you the door.

Blackmail, my secrets against me
Blackmail, what i didn't see
Blackmail all trust was gone
Blackmail, you are not the one.

Trapped inside this place of evil, need to get out somehow, couldn't walk, couldn't run away, double crossing filthy cow.

Tried to play the game, taking to much time, evil mind just like you, death bells begin to chime.

Blackmail, my secrets against me
Blackmail, what i didn't see
Blackmail all trust was gone
Blackmail, you are not the one.

Last piece of the puzzle, all came together. The only way out i will never surrender. You will now be the beggar. Never surrender.

Murder, blackmail does not compare Murder, it seemed so fair Murder, your time has come Murder, now we are done
