After hours of motionless dancing
To the sound of heavy rain
I told myself to pick up the pieces
And go moving on up again
I'll just let it drip-drip-drip on me
I'll let it just soak right through
I'll let it just drip on me
I'll let it just soak right through

Whoehoehoehoe
It will get better,
That's what I told you from the start
Whoehoehoehoe
It will get clearer
That's what the weather gods said last night
This will all make sense in good timeâ€¦!

When I was just a young child
My father said to me
He said: sleep around with dogs, dear
And you'll for sure catch their flies
Well, your itchiness well suits me
And your boldness makes me smile
I guess I'll just stay a little longer
I guess I'll just give you a try

Whoehoehoehoe
It will get better
That's what I told you from the start
Whoehoehoehoe
It will get clearer
That's what the weather gods said last night
This will make sense in good timeâ€¦!
