We trip and we fall, We live and we learn
We've come to learn from the mistakes you've made
And mistakes we'll make, Every single day,
On a regular basis.

So why do we keep tripping in your footsteps?
Why do we keep living out your regrets?
Cause I dont know. And thats all I know.
Is that I dont know. And thats all I know.
123 now Go.

And as were lying face down choking on your gun.
We sing, We sing a song for you.
As were lying here, Our lives become a missed
We sing, we sing a song for all those drowning in our way.

Sit back, and watch a thousand years, strangle me.
Your hands around my neck.
Why do we keep tripping in your footsteps?
Why do we keep living out your regrets?
Just as long as we get up. We will be just fine.

But I dont know. And thats all I know.
Is that I dont know. 123 now Go.
And as were lying face down choking on your gun.
We sing, we sing a song for you.
As were lying here, our lives become a missed
We sing, we sing a song for all those drowning in our way.

If all we are is echos.
Now ask if I will live forever.
If all we are is echos.
Now ask if I will live forever.
If all we are, If all we are,
If all we are, Its one thing I dont know.
Is that I dont know. And thats all I know.
123 now Go.

And as were lying face down choking on your gun.
We sing, we sing a song for you.

As were lying here, our lives become a missed.
We sing, we sing a song for all those drowning in our
way.

Theres nothing you can do. It all comes back to you.
We sing, we sing a song for you.
Theres nothing you can do. It all comes back to you.
We sing, we sing a song for all those drowning in our way.
