Silence fills the room
Round one is over now dear
So sit down and dry your pretty eyes
And your mum tries to heal her wounds
And though you can't hear
You're daddy's just as torn up inside

But you can't turn your back
On the road we call life
And even though it's bumpy
You'll make it through the night

Cause tomorrow's a new day
And with good things it comes
Your world's in shades of grey so baby girl
Hold on, hold on, hold on

And as they start up again
So do your tears
Cause their yelling and screaming's so loud
And as you think over
All those previous years
You were naïve not to figure it out

But you can't turn your back
On the road we call life
And even though it's bumpy
You'll make it through the night

Cause tomorrow's a new day
And with good things it comes
Your world's in shades of grey so baby girl
Hold on, hold on, hold on

And after rounds one, two three four
They're just reminding us all of what he did
And after five, six and seven, eight
You try forgive his mistakes over and over again

But you can't turn your back
On the road we call life
And even though it's bumpy

Youâ€™ll make it through the night

Tomorrowâ€™s a new day
And with good things it comes
Your worldâ€™s in shades of grey so baby girl
Hold on, hold on, hold on

Be my brave girl and just hold on
