

Irene Higgins

"Wendy And Peter Pan"

Visit "Wendy And Peter Pan" on MotoLyrics.com

If I think happy thoughts of you and I
And choose the right star to be my guide
Will these happy thoughts and dreams lead me to you?
Thoughts of stories and dancing in fairy light
Of whispers and getting lost in your eyes
You know you could sweetly drown me if you wanted to

But you're just a boy
Trying to be a man
And falling back down
I'm destroyed
Run as fast as you can
Reality won't catch us now

To die would be an awfully big adventure
So fly with me while we can
What a fine piece of literature we'd make
Wendy and Peter Pan

And when the happiness leaves the sadness arrives
And I wonder how I'll get through with living my life
Knowing that you're better off without me
So I pray that you think of me on this sleepless night
Of our sword fights and finding you on my side
I hope that you don't forget how we could have been

But you're just a boy
You don't want to be a man
And I can't change your mind
We're destroyed
Can't we try this again
If only we could turn back time

To die would be an awfully big adventure
So fly with me while we can
What a fine piece of literature we'd make
Wendy and Peter Pan

And it's night's like these you'll find my window open just a crack

And I hope and pray that by the cleverness of you my Peter will come back
So plan one last thimble on my trembling lips Cause you save me from the face of death with your kiss

To live wouldâ€™ ve been an awfully big adventure
And in time I will come to know
Iâ€™ d still give you every piece of me thatâ€™ s left
Rather than let you go

To die would be an awfully big adventure
So fly with me while we can
What a fine piece of literature we made
Wendy and Peter Pan
Wendy and Peter Pan

Visit Irene Higgins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.