"The Jam Song"

It's better to lean on; much better than taking it alone
The tables have turned now; it's time to get on with the show

One will die,
And two will try,
But three won't lie...
Until their muscles cry

Let's jam a bit longer; our hearts will grow stronger, don't you know?
The message is clear now; it's time to get off the radio

One will die,
And two will try,
But three won't lie...
Until their muscles cry

So hey now
Let's not throw life away now
The sound is what you say now
We're coming out to play

For you now
The here and now
Open wide
Here we come

One, two, three, four

So hey now
Let's not throw life away now
The sound is what you say now
We're coming out to play
