Been reaching for a reason for the pain has come
Been waiting for a season when the healing's done
Well...
Line up in black and white
This blood runs red both sides
Broken in two, hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as...
See the battle that is raging in our hearts and minds
Hear their voices and their shouting at the other's crimes
Well...
Our past lives dressed in white
We're all just dragged to the fight
Broken in two, hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as...
Line up in black and white
(Black and white)
This blood runs red both sides
Our past now thrown aside
(Thrown aside)
We're all just dragged to the fight
Broken in two... Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
Hurting as one
We could be one
We could be one
Coming undone
We could be one
Hurting as...
