Hmm I especially enjoyed that one. let's see what's next.

I believe that reality's gone
Disillusion's real
I believe that reality's gone
And there's nothing to feel

If you take these things
Things that we hold dear
Hands of crime is all you'll find

Chorus
Give me somethin'
Somethin' to believe in
Somethin' to believe in
Somethin' to believe in
Somethin' to believe in

I believe in the changin' of the guard
Put our feet on the ground
See how it is in your own backyard
Everything breaks down

Do you accept what you are told
Without even thinking
Throw it all you'll make your own

Chorus

Where they lead
You will follow
Well I guess that's just the way it goes

And if you go away
You'll be doing what they say
And if you've got a life
You'll be seeing that it's right

If you take home anything
Let it be your own two feet
The more single you become

The better off you'll be

Chorus
