Your eyes can say a thousand words
But I can't hear you speak
You whisper in the darkness
But I barely hear you breathe
Somewhere in the distance
You find your final call
The end is coming closer
The writing's on the wall

A touch of darkness
That is burning deep inside
The devil on my shoulder says
"Kiss me, touch me!"

I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Save me from this pain
Standing naked in the rain
I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Tears of grey disharmony
Hear my screams of agony

My mouth can scream a thousand lies
Sweet things in your ear
But truth is hard to hide now
It's boiling up in fear
Somewhere in the winter
So deep under the snow
His body lies there resting
My regrets begin to grow

A touch of darkness
That is burning deep inside
The devil on my shoulder says
"Kiss me, touch me!"

I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Save me from this pain
Standing naked in the rain
I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Tears of grey disharmony
Hear my screams of agony

Hear the prayers in the dark unholy night
From a wounded heart that's bleeding, screaming!

I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Save me from this pain
Standing naked in the rain
I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Tears of grey disharmony
Hear my screams of agony

I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Save me from this pain
Standing naked in the rain
I hear the angels crying (hear the angels cry! )
Tears of grey disharmony
Hear my screams of agony
