Bump it up make you shake your body
Start the party!

Let's go!
Start the party.

I'm sitting back watching re-runs
A full house and The Jetsons
Pizzaman on speed dial
30 minutes or less, I hope it takes a while

I'm sick of watching old movies
Take another snoozy 'cause I don't love Lucy
Someone wake me from this daze
I gotta get up and get outta this place

So everyone you know
You got to tell everybody we about to

Bump it up, make you shake your body
Get get down and the crowd gets naughty
Line 'em up, better lock it down
Gonna start start start start the party

Everybody let me hear 'ya
Grab a hottie and get on the floor
Line 'em up, better lock it down
Gonna start start start start the party

MJ, LMFAO
Blasting through the stereo
I got my drink and my hands up
30 minutes or less I'm gonna fill it back up

Kissed a girl, shoulda got her name
I smell Chanel and I taste champagne
Is it still today?
Who cares anyway?

So everyone you know
You got to tell everybody we about to

Bump it up, make you shake your body
Get get down and the crowd gets naughty
Line 'em up, better lock it down
Gonna start start start start the party

Everybody let me hear 'ya
Grab a hottie and get on the floor
Line 'em up, better lock it down

Gonna start start start start the party(x3)

Bump it up, make you shake your body
Gonna start start start start the party.

(David Schmitt)
You know I'll be swinging from the chandlers.
So throw up your cups, everybody cheers.
Tonight we'll live it up, wanna get a taste.
Party like stars, we're outta space.
(Line I don't know.)
Never going home like we're told.
Going hard tonight and without a doubt.
ItBoys! and Breathe no we won't blackout

Bump it up, make you shake your body
Get get down and the crowd gets naughty
Line 'em up, better lock it down
Gonna start start start start the party

Everybody let me hear 'ya
Grab a hottie and get on the floor
Line 'em up, better lock it down

Gonna start start start start the party (x3)
Bump it up, make you shake your body.
Start start start start the party.

And if you're feeling rowdy
