Ahh ooh
You are the fire in my eyes
Your ass is just my despise
So pay the price now I'm not so nice Just thought id break the ice
So fuck your Facebook its not how your face looks Ooh Bitch

Dont you worry
These words will soon be clear theres no hurry so breath slow my dear.

The open air (the open air) will take you there(will take you there)
You'll find your answer you'll find your reason to come back home

I've been misled
I've had better days

How does your medicine taste girl (I am ready to let go)

Dont you ever feel that we will become friends again
This isn't a message this is for the win.

This will be the last you can chase your pass
With open eyes you stare welcome to medusas lair

The open air the open air will take you there will take you there you'll find your answers you'll find your reason to come back home
