You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're on your own now

So fall away from me, back down your sob stories

You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're all alone now

Sit back and shut up right now
You used what you could in me
I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it now
I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it
So leave me alone

So fall away from me, back down your sad stories
I've given you more, you've given me less
I've given you everything, yeah
I've given all that i've got
I've given all that I had
You're ungrateful, you're ungrateful

Your drugs got the best out of you
You're full of lies and more false truths
You cheated me out of everything yeah
You cheated me out of everything

I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it now
I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it
So leave me alone, yeah

Sit back and shut up right now
You used what you could in me
I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it baby, yeah
I don't wanna talk about it, talk about it now
So leave me alone
You're on your own now
You're on your own now

You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're on your own now
You're all alone now
