I'll wait for, you girl
I'll wait for, i'll wait for you girl

As I count the hours all night for your return
The clock turns time so slowly I can't be rest assured

I'll wait for, you girl
I'll wait for, i'll wait for you girl

You wanted to break me, you wanted to test me
You're so gullible
With my arms wide open you push me away, oh yeah
You know this

You wanted to see, you wanted to lust
Was about to give up and now who do I trust Forgiveness is thin, while you break free within
I love you so much it hurts, but i'll wait for you

Our memories together and our cherished plan
Let's give it one more try, I know we can You're so beautiful, flawless in nature, you're so beautiful, yeah
We're too far to end this, let's make up and return to what once was

I'll wait for, you girl
I'll wait for, i'll wait for you girl
I'll wait for, you girl
I'll wait for, i'll wait for you girl
