Here's a story bout a boy who came for nothing
what he found is that he needed to find something that I cannot explain.

Give it time and you will find what you are here for ask the questions get the answers you have longed for but you will still be lost.

All this thinking is too much for me and if I dwell then it will lead me to insanity will someone help me understand?

What's the point if you're confused?
What's the difference if I'll never be like you?

Somebody gimme a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it
That's what I, all I need from you
(You say don't stress but its all I do)
And its all that I need from you. Oh!

As if it's not enough for me
the second I start changing is the second you start pushing me
you think its simple but I am!
oh, only human only 18 just trying to grow up so there is no sense in pushing me, in time I will be who I am!

What's the point if you're confused?
What's the difference if I'll never be like you?

Somebody gimme a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it
That's what I, all I need from you
(You say don't stress but its all I do)
And its all that I need from you. Oh!

Oh! sing with me oh!
Oh! sing with me oh!

Somebody gimme a reason to smile again
Somebody tell me its all okay and get over it

That's what I, all I need from you
(You say don't stress but its all I do)
And its all that I need from you. Oh!
