[Hook]

She loves me at home but hate when I get it
I told her just relax and just let me finish
She loves it when Im home but hate it when I get it
Because Im in the streets and Im just trying to get it
I told her wait and just let me finish
She loves me at home but hate it when I get it
Im in the streets it might take a minute
She loves me at home but hate when I get it

[Verse1]

I been with her for a long time
She been with me on this long grind
She aint never ever been petty
When I aint have shit she was always ready
She has always been down for me
She the only one I say I need
And when it comes to these other hoes I be Pulling off and just skirting off with a speed
Aint nobody really like her
And that's the reason why I like her
My mans telling me that I should never wife her
But Im thinking that I should cuz that girl good.
And I know that I might be tripping
But believe that I aint never slipping
But she hate when I go and get it
I told her wait and just let me finish

[Verse2]

Im that nigga that she calls on
Up all night for her
Conversations but it's more of

What she likes and what she adores
But Im sure..
I can make her the only one
And I aint even trying to act dumb
She said that Im her number one
Knowing that she got dude so Im number two
I aint even trying to laugh at ya
Im just really trying to ask ya
Can we get it get it crackin'
And if we could girl then we can make it happen
I know that you don't really trust them..
Other niggas so what I say "girl fuck 'em"
I treat girls like they really nothing
But in you, you're special..I see something
