When I'm alone I feel like the earth I shakin in a earthquake I'm so scared and frightened I'm in a deep valley and there's no light to my path I feel like I'm not gonna make it anymore without you I need you close I need you right here with me so I can keep going on with the beautiful highway of life there still hope for me in this small world cause I need to go on to find you I miss you asks I need you right here right now tonight I need the comfort of your arms the beating o your heart to calm me cause when I'm alone I feel like the earth is shakin in a earthquake in so scared and frightened I'm in a deep valley and there's no light to my path I feel like I'm not gonna make it anymore without you I need you close I need you right here with me so I can keep going on with the beautiful highway of life there's still hope for me in this small world cause I need to go on to find you I miss you and I need you right here right now tonight
