my my you busted me like a robocop strike me with your riding crop i'm forever going celibate tomorrow but tonight like success knows no shame oh no she's a rejector i must protect myself there's the girl that left me bitter want to pay some other girl to just walk up to her and hit her but i can't i can't i can't my my this demon heart of the master's hand crush me why i don't understand and i know you're not her cause the girl of my dreams is probably god still i want you
