And so begins begins our odyssey
And we begin begin our odyssey
And so begins begins our odyssey
The auria is bleeding and the boyish voice is leaving I've been an evil tenor I filled the innocents doe eyes with glue You're my only softness you're my only pleasure it's true
And I never want to be your little friend the abject failure
And so begins begins our odyssey
And we begin begin our odyssey
And so begins begins our odyssey
The chrysalis is breaking and the super ego's waking I've been a gloomy Petrarch with a quill as weepy as Dido
You're my mousy aesthete you're my bouyant cherub it's true
And I never want to be your little friend the abject
failure
