[Verse 1:]

I see the moon,
A million stars are out tonight
Gentle reminders of the way You are
A sea of glass,
A raging storm has come to pass
You show Your face in an array of ways
And my feet may venture to the ground
But You have never let me down
I can't hold it in,
My soul is screaming

[Chorus:]

Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, I'm into Jesus, oh yeah
Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, I've seen the truth and I believe

[Verse 2:]

Well I know You're there,
I feel Your love through my despair
And You speak the words that ease away the pain
My heart is free,
My eyes are clear,
My soul is healed
Now that You have got a hold on me
My feet may venture to the ground
But You have never let me down
I can't hold it in, my soul is screaming

[Chorus:]

Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, I'm into Jesus, oh yeah
Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, I've seen the truth
And I believe
Ooh, ooh, I believe

[Verse 3:]

Hey you, the kid is back
And I do declare that the sun is shining

Hey you, the kid is back
With a red alert
And it might be blinding
Hey you, this kid is back
And I do declare the sun is shining
Hey you, this kid is back
The kid is back

My feet may venture to the ground

[Chorus:]

Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, oh, I'm into Jesus
Hey you, I'm into Jesus
Don't you know, don't ya know?
I'm into Jesus
Don't ya know that I'm into Jesus, ooh
I've seen the truth
And I believe, ooh
Hey you, I'm into Jesus
