Hello there old friend, I see you're back again,
Did you recieve the notes that I had sent?
Good evening Mr. Moon. You make my shadow loom
And dance on walls around the living room
Farewell now brother sky, You sail away and I,
Can see you fading with dusk again
I can't say how long it's been since your ship arrived,
All I know is that you sank and made me think the word
goodbye,
Last call, the end is near.
The tracks are gone, we're in the clear
I'll see you in the next Yet again, my only friend
How long had you been gone?
When everything was going wrong
You reared your ugly head, and she'd a grin.
This story is going well, It all just goes to hell,
And I can see the malice in your eyes.
Fine morning glowing sun. The day has just begun,

But I can tell what you're hiding in the cracks.
I can't say how long it's been since your ship arrived,
All I know is that you sank and made me think the word
goodbye,
Last call, the end is near.
The tracks are gone, we're in the clear
I'll see you in the next Yet again, my only friend
So we meet, smoking gun,
Set sail into the sun,
I swear you'll never see my face again.
I can't say how long it's been since your ship arrived,
All I know is that you sank and made me think the word
goodbye,
Last call, the end is near.
The tracks are gone, we're in the clear
I'll see you in the next Yet again, my only friend
This is a last goodbye,
Before we all die,
One last word before we meet again,
My only friend.
