Infect the world with your epidemic
Flood the earth, consume the sky
Let it flow from your holy spirit
Then exalt his name on high

It's your's, it's mine
It's spreading over all mankind
When it's over, you will see
This epidemic is eternity

And now you've seen through my eyes
And it's over
I don't know how to disguise
That it's over

And now you've taken my life
And it's over
I know you want to be mine
But it's over, it's over, it's over, it's over now

Infect the world with your epidemic
Flood the earth, consume the sky
Let it flow from your holy spirit
Then exalt his name on high

It's your's, it's mine
It's spreading over all mankind
When it's over, you will see
This epidemic is eternity

And now you've seen through my eyes
And it's over
I don't know how to disguise
That it's over

And now you've taken my life
And it's over
I know you want to be mine
But it's over, it's over, it's over, it's over now

Spread the epidemic
Spread the epidemic

Spread the epidemic
Spread the epidemic
